Robert R. Reeder
Superintendent-Director

As time goes by, members of the Class of 1975 will note that memories of your High School days will become increasingly hazy. You will, in the not too distant future, have difficulty in remembering all except a very special few of your classmates and teachers. You may remember those speakers who honored you at your commencement but you have probably already forgotten their message.

If in the future, as you reminisce through the pages of this Yearbook, you happen to read this message, I sincerely hope that the words of Louis Bromfield, recalled to the best of my ability, add meaning to your life as they have to mine.

Man's destiny is a great one because the essence of it all is tragic. All that he builds crumbles; all that he loves most he must one day leave behind him. That alone which endures on earth is the spirit with which he undertakes and meets his fate. This he passes on to his children and his comrades; only a breath indeed, but the breath of life. The words of Jesus are ultimate in their wisdom:

"He that loses his life shall find it."

William J. Collins
Deputy Superintendent-Director

Jerry W. Carpenter
Director of Curriculum

Charles P. Conlon
Director of Vocational Education

Kathleen G. Delaney
Director of Vocational Education

In Recognition of and Appreciation for the Value of His Efforts on Behalf of the Greater Lowell Regional School and its Member Communities, and Especially on Behalf of the Regional's Students, Past, Present, and Future, the 1975 Gryphon is Respectfully Dedicated to:

ROBERT R. REEDER
Superintendent-Director

Ahem!

The First Bankers are pleased to voice a note of cheer in the storm of economic gloom. Counter to all known trends, we have again closed the year with solid gains in deposits and assets — and in liquidity. There may not be another bank in America that can publish this kind of annual statement. But then, there's not another bank in America that has you for customers (over 50% more of you this year). Thank you very, very much.

Edward S. Redstone

Congratulations!

Graduation is a big day in anyone's life. The diploma you have earned represents years of hard work on your part. What you have learned during these years has increased your value to yourself, your community...and to your country.

We of the United States Air Force congratulate you on your accomplishment and send you our best wishes for the future.
